Legal Requirements

Important—When tickets are on sale to the general public, the organisation running the draw must be registered with the local authority.

Each ticket must specify:

- The name of the organisation running the draw*
- Date and place of draw*
- The name and address of the promoter*
- The name of the local authority with whom the organisation is registered under The Gambling Act 2005*
- Price of ticket (maximum £2). The price of each ticket must be the same. It is ILLEGAL to offer free tickets (e.g. Tickets: 25p each, 5 for £1)*

Private Lotteries—When ticket sales are restricted to members of one society, or persons who either live or work together on the same premises, it is not necessary to register with the local authority. These tickets must state the promoters' name and addresses and the persons to whom ticket sales are restricted. The standard wording for this is "The sale of tickets is restricted to members of the (name of club). No prize won in this draw shall be paid or delivered by the promoter to any person other than the persons to whom the winning ticket was sold by them".

LOTTERY LICENSES are obtainable from the local authority and are renewable on an annual basis. Registered charities are legally required to state they are "A Registered Charity" or include their Charity Registration Number on the ticket.

IT IS AN OFFENCE to print or sell draw tickets which do not comply with the legal requirements.
